

A SPECIAL PRESENTATION

NASHVILLE METRO PARKS

IS PLEASED TO

WELCOME

RICHARD LOUV,

AUTHOR OF "LAST

CHILD IN THE

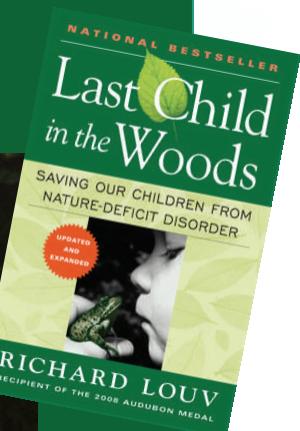

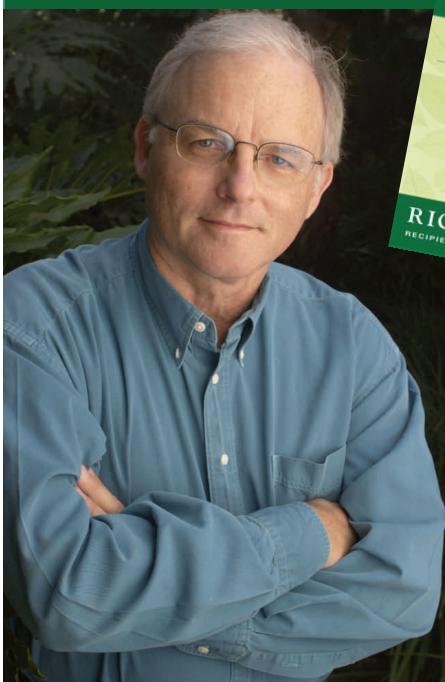

WOODS:

SAVING OUR

CHILDREN FROM

NATURE DEFICIT

DISORDER."

Last Child in the Woods

...has launched a growing movement to reconnect children with nature. Discover how unstructured play outdoors has a positive impact on healthy child development, creativity, and cognitive functioning while improving health risks such as ADHD, child obesity, and stress. Mr. Louv presents an exciting new body of scientific evidence and offers practical suggestions for parents, teachers, urban planners, and anyone concerned about the future of our children and our environment. Join us on November 10 for an exciting presentation about what we can do to reconnect our children to nature. Mr. Louv will be present for a book signing immediately following the program.

Monday, November 10, 2008

6:00 p.m.

Hume Fogg Academic High School

(700 Broadway Ave. Downtown)

Admission is FREE. Seating is available on a first come, first served basis. Free parking for this event will be available at the Metro Library Garage. For more information contact the Warner Park Nature Center:

(615)352-6299

wpnc@nashville.gov

Presented by:

Vanderbilt Center
for Science Outreach

Additionally sponsored by:

The Garden Club of Nashville
A member of the Garden Club of America

metro parks

The Metro Board of Parks & Recreation does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, sex, color, national origin or disability in admission, access to or operation of its programs, services, or activities. For TTY (relay service), call 1-800-849-0299. For questions, concerns or requests regarding the American Disabilities Act call 862-8600.